

CARL H. JOHNSON ACHIEVEMENT SCHOLARSHIP

Scholarship Application

The Carl H. Johnson Achievement Scholarship memorializes Susan Cornacchione's father. Inspired by Matt and Susan Cornacchione's daughter, it supports students working in interdisciplinary fields of applied environmental problems.

The applicant must be a full- or part-time IUPUI undergraduate student who has successfully completed a minimum of 24 credits, is working toward a degree with a semester class load of a minimum of six hours, and maintains a minimum 2.5 GPA. Preference will be shown to a student who is pursuing a degree in earth or environmental sciences OR is succeeding in spite of learning challenges. A $500 academic scholarship will be provided to the recipient.

The scholarship recipient will be selected during the spring 2009 semester to be recognized at the School of Science Spring Honor's Convocation. The scholarship award will be applied to the recipient's fall 2009 semester tuition.

The application form should be printed or typed and submitted with a one page letter written by the applicant. The letter should discuss either a) how the applicant's future career goals are linked to applied earth and environmental science or b) how the applicant has overcome or dealt with learning challenges.

A minimum of one letter of reference is also required. The reference letter(s) may be written by a faculty member, a mentor, a counselor, etc., but may not be authored by a family member. Letters of reference may be mailed by their authors, included in the application packets in a sealed, signed envelope, or emailed directly to Dr. Lenore Tedesco at ltedesco@iupui.edu.

Application and Reference Letter Deadline Date February 20, 2009
